“I believe in the one, holy, universal church and in the communion of the saints.” ~The Apostles’ Creed

“Once you choose Christ, you must choose His people, too. It’s a package deal. Choose the Father and the Son and you have to choose the whole family – which you do through a local church.”
~Jonathan Leeman

“The church is primarily a body of people who profess and give evidence that they have been saved by God’s grace alone, for His glory alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. This is what a New Testament church is; it is not a building. The early Christians didn’t have buildings for almost 300 years after the church began. The collection of people committed to Christ in a local area constitute a church.”
~Mark Dever

“A church is not a group of friends you’ve picked, it’s a group of brothers and sisters God has picked for you.”
~Michael Horton

“The church, as defined by the Word of God, is a group of Christians who dedicate themselves to meeting together for the regular preaching of the Word of God; who submit themselves to biblical eldership; who regularly celebrate the ordinances of the church (baptism and the Lord’s Supper); and who practice and submit themselves to church discipline as laid out in Scripture.”
~Wayne Mack

“The man who attempts Christianity without the church shoots himself in the foot, shoots his children in the leg, and shoots his grandchildren in the heart.” ~Kevin DeYoung

Matthew 16:13-19; John 13:34-35

Big Idea of this Series: The Apostles’ Creed is a concise summary of the main points of the Christian faith and will help us avoid and correct error and be strengthened and matured in our faith.

Big Idea of Today’s Message: The church is one, holy, universal, called-out people of God, created by God through the accomplishments of His Son and the application of His Spirit.

What is the “church” in which we believe?

The church is founded upon a radical gospel confession, vv. 16, 18a.

The church is founded upon the revealed gospel truth of God, v. 17.

The church is founded in the transforming power of the gospel, v. 18.

The church is founded with gospel authority, v. 19.

“I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended to the dead. The third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Christian church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.” ~The Apostles’ Creed
