Staff Recommended Reading: Cheque Book of the Bank of Faith by Charles Spurgeon who wrote this selection of readings to encourage believers on a daily basis to enter into the full provision that their relationship to Jesus entitled them to realize. He explains we have to present the promises of Scripture to God in prayer and faith, anticipating that He will honor what He has said.

Come Before Winter by Charles R. Swindoll. Our "winters" can be protracted times of barrenness accompanied by bleak feelings of loneliness . . . periods of unexplainable fruitlessness. The author speaks on preparation, perseverance, and promise--a ministry for all who want hope.

As a family of forgiven people we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located under the pew in front of you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Psalm 150 (Praise the Lord)

“Here is the point. God’s hand is over all history. God works out His purpose, generation after generation. Limited as we are to one lifetime, each of us sees so little of what happens. But we need to realize that God is working out salvation – even among little people like Ruth and Boaz and such a little out-of-the-way place as Bethlehem. Bethlehem was a nowhere place. These were unknown people. But they gave rise to a king.”

John Stevenson

“When you leave this world, will you be known as one who accumulated treasures on earth that you couldn’t keep? Or will you be recognized as one who invested treasures in heaven that you couldn’t lose?”

Randy Alcorn

“Death is never the last word in the life of a man. When a man leaves this world, be he righteous or unrighteous, he leaves something in the world. He may leave something that will grow and spread like a cancer or a poison, or he may leave something like the fragrance of perfume or a blossom of beauty that permeates the atmosphere with blessing.”

James Moffatt

“Do not die, O ye greyheads – you who have passed your threescore years and ten – do not pass away from this earth with all those pleasant memories of God’s lovingkindness to be buried with you in your coffin; but let your children, and your children’s children, know what the everlasting God did for you.”

Charles H. Spurgeon

Ruth 4:1-22
