Memory Verse, Joshua 24:15 “And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the river, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

Life Adult Luncheon (60 + Up) March 20, today in the Chapel/Café right after the worship service. Just a quick reminder if you signed up for the luncheon—Ed Bedrosian’s topic is “Forms for Glory.”

Life Adult (60 + Up) Sign up at the Welcome Center for this trip on April 9 to visit the Oklahoma Aquarium, Jenks, and Fannie’s Country Cookin’, Chouteau. The cost per person is $40.

Women’s Bible Study Wed. 6:30-8:00pm March 30-May 4

Living a Life of True Worship by Kay Arthur is a small group study (no homework) that examines what the Bible says about true worship. You’ll explore solid, biblical principles for making worship a lifestyle of grateful response to your Creator and Redeemer. Register online at heritageokc.org/news+events (purchase book for $5 in class once registered).

Save the Dates! April 15, Good Friday & Communion Service at 7pm; and April 17, Resurrection Day Celebration with brunch at 9am and worship service at 10:30am.

Membership Matters Class, Sunday, May 1, 9:00-11:45am, House Room 202. This Membership Matters class is an opportunity for us to further explain some of our distinctives and how we aim to help you grow in godliness as you seek to make disciples. If you have an interest in joining our local church body or have questions about our church, please register online by Wednesday, April 27; lunch will follow in the Café. Contact ron@heritageokc.org with questions.

Kanakuk Kampout July 18-22: This summer we are again hosting KampOut, a Christian day-camp adventure for kids 5-12 years old! Registration is now open online at cometokamp.org. A few ways you can help with Kampout: Be a host home for staff, help provide staff lunch, overnight security, or serve as a healthcare professional. If you have questions, contact Shawn@heritageokc.org; or 773-3333 x109.

NEHEMIAH

Rebuilder of Broken Walls

As a family of forgiven people we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located under the pew in front of you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Song of Response

Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me

“We meet God the Creator as a worker in Genesis. The image of God in man means man is to be a worker. The way we work will reveal how much we have allowed the image of God to develop in us.”

Kent Hughes

“Every individual believer is to stay close to Jesus Christ, faithfully using his spiritual gift in close contact with every believer he touches, and that through such commitment and ministry the Lord’s power will flow for the building up of the Body in love.”

John MacArthur

“In our battles with sin, we need a team of people. We need teachers to help us understand Scripture, prophets to help us apply it, interceders to pray for us, preachers to focus our eyes on Christ, encouragers to remind us of God’s grace when we feel like failures, wise men and women to discern when we are making foolish decisions, and people of faith to tell us that everything God has said is true in Christ. In other words, God’s gifts to us are people – not just one person, but the church. This is how Christ meets us. The reason we need so many people is that we need Christ Himself. Since His glory and gifts are so immense, we need many people, not just an individual.”

Edward Welch

“Remember always that your work or ministry or position dare never keep you from your family. If you fail them, you fail your greatest responsibility – and you are a failure in life.”

Ted Engstrom

Together We Build... and Win

Nehemiah 3:1-32

Big Truth of this Series: God is working to glorify Himself by sending a deliverer to rebuild our broken walls and call us to worship and obedience in the face of opposition.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Every one of God’s people must take responsibility for his or her part of God’s work. Partnership in mutual ministry gets the job done.

Worshippers are workers and your work is holy.

The work of the body of Christ is a beautiful thing, except when people won’t work.

To be truly effective, your work for the Lord must start with your own family.

God honors those who work and serve, no matter the size of their contribution.

The gospel is in the gates.
