Turn Your Eyes

It is the mark of a grown up man, as compared with a naïve youth, that he finds his center of gravity wherever he happens to be at the moment, and however much he longs for the object of his desire, it cannot prevent him from staying at his post and doing his duty.

From Spiritual Leadership by
Oswald Sanders

Living as a called Person:

- Called people know exactly who they are; knowing who you are not is the beginning of knowing who you are. They have an increasing ability to separate role from person.
- Called people possess an unwavering sense of purpose. The best man/maid of honor has fulfilled his/her purpose when they draw no attention to themselves but focus all attention upon the bride and groom.
- Called people understand unswerving commitment.
- Called people experience peace and joy. When others thought that John might be worried about ending up as a failure, they discovered that he actually was quite satisfied, in spite of the fact that his audiences were leaving him.
