My Worth Is Not in
What I Own

"When God converts a sinner, and translates him into the state of grace, He frees him from his natural bondage under sin; and, by His grace alone, enables him freely to will and to do that which is spiritually good..."
(Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter IX)

"Grace not only refers to God's character trait or disposition or inclination to treat people better than we deserve, but the word grace also refers to the action or the power or the influence or the force of this disposition, which produces real, practical outcomes in people's lives, ... that does not mean you have to give up that simple definition of undeserved favor. That's true. That's a good definition. It just means that the word also embraces the encouraging truth that this favor overflows in powerful, practical helpfulness from God in your daily life where you most need it. That help is also called grace because it's free and it's undeserved."

(John Piper)

"Humility is the treasure chest in which all other virtues are contained. Humility is the essence of a right spirit. And when a person comes to the point where they are humbled, they seek no longer fulfillment of the flesh, they seek no longer the driving pleasures of lust that pit them against the will of God, but the Spirit of God breaks that desire in their heart and by sovereign grace gives them a longing for what is right and a hunger for righteousness. Then they receive the grace of God."

(John MacArthur)

"The higher a man is in grace, the lower he will be in his own esteem."

(C. H. Spurgeon)
