Rebuilder of Broken Walls

As a family of forgiven people we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located under the pew in front of you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Song of Response

*I Will Wait For You
(Psalm 130)*

"It is rare to hear genuine praise, which is simply the practice of putting all thoughts of self aside to concentrate on adoration of God, and God alone – for His character, for His attributes, for His unmatched qualities."

Chuck Swindoll

"According to Revelation 21:1-5, God will immediately create a new heaven and a new earth. Do we really believe He can do that, or will it take another umpteen billion years of evolutionary process to get the new heaven and new earth in working order? If we really believe He can destroy this universe in a split second and immediately create a whole new one, what's the problem with believing the Genesis account of a six-day creation in the first place? If He can do it at the end of the age, why is it so hard to believe the biblical account of what happened in the beginning?"

John MacArthur

"God is sovereign, but parents are responsible. God's sovereignty is our hope. Parents are utterly dependent on God. He can save any child, no matter how dark the circumstances. On the other hand, God normally reaches children through their parents. It is fatal to presume on God's sovereignty by neglecting parental faithfulness. Yet it is also a mistake to assume that it all depends on us. It doesn't. In fact, none of your efforts will prevail unless God bestows the gift of faith on your children. We are utterly dependent and responsible at the same time."

William Farley

"Faith is trusting God to do what He has promised because we are convinced by His provisions that God is both willing and able to keep His Word."

Scott Hafemann

Worshipping God for His Amazing Faithfulness

Nehemiah 9:1-15

Big Truth of this Series: God is working to glorify Himself by sending a deliverer to rebuild our broken walls and call us to worship and obedience in the face of opposition.

Big Truth of Today's Message: God is worthy to be worshipped for His amazing faithfulness to people who received everything and appreciated nothing.

We prepare our hearts for worship by confessing our defection from Him. (9:1-5)

We worship God for being our Creator and Sustainer. (9:6)

We worship God for His sovereign election and covenant of grace. (9:7-8)

We worship God for His compassion and great deliverance. (9:9-11)

We worship God for His guidance. (9:12)

We worship God for the revelation of His Word. (9:13-14)

We worship God for His provision. (9:15)
