NEHEMIAH

Rebuilder of Broken Walls

As a family of forgiven people we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located under the pew in front of you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Song of Response

We Will Glorify

“On Sundays God wants us to do more than sing songs together and have wonderful worship experiences. He wants us to knit the fabric of our lives together. For many, church has become all about me—what I’m learning, what I’m seeking, what I’m desperate for, what I need, how I’ve been affected, what I can do. We see ourselves as isolated individuals all seeking personal encounters with God wherever we can find them. Sadly, this reflects our individualistic, me-obsessed culture. Rather than seeing ourselves as part of a worship community, we become worship consumers. We want worship on demand, served up in our own time, and with our own music.”

Bob Kauflin

“Real, meaningful worship with God’s people is not optional. It’s not a suggestion. It’s not a take-it-or-leave-it proposition. Worship on the Lord’s Day should be the crowning joy of our week. It’s our opportunity to engage our minds toward God. To enjoy His people. To bask in His presence. To corporately drink from His Word. To give of our talents and resources. To encourage and to be encouraged. To offer praise.”

John MacArthur

“The God we seek is a person. As we seek Him (and not just an experience of Him) we glorify and do indeed enjoy Him... It is not ‘my experience’ at which proper worship aims. Fulfilling personal experience is a by-product of God-centeredness in worship.”

Terry Johnson

“When I see Thee as Thou art, I’ll praise Thee as I ought.”

Real Revival: A Praise Service to Remember

Nehemiah 12:27-47

Big Truth of this Series: God is working to glorify Himself by sending a deliverer to rebuild our broken walls and call us to worship and obedience in the face of opposition.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Israel’s dedication of the rebuilt wall in Jerusalem is a model for the kind of worship celebration we see when the church experiences real revival.

Introduction:

A celebration of victory. (12:27-30)

Songs of thanksgiving. (12:31-39)

Sacrifices of joy. (12:40-43)
