Take My Life

“The bedrock of missions is not the value of man. It is the spread of God’s glory. The biblical commitment to evangelism and missions is rooted in God’s passionate concern to the spreading of His glorious name among the peoples of the world. This is His passionate concern; it must be ours.”

~Steve Fernandez

“The mark of a great church is not its seating capacity, but its sending capacity.”

~Mike Stachura

“‘Not called!’ did you say? ‘Not heard the call,’ I think you should say. Put your ear down to the Bible, and hear him bid you go and pull sinners out of the fire of sin. Put your ear down to the burdened, agonized heart of humanity, and listen to its pitiful wail for help. Go stand by the gates of hell, and hear the damned entreat you to go to their father’s house and bid their brothers and sisters, and servants, and masters not to come there. And then look Christ in the face, whose mercy you have professed to obey, and tell him whether you will join heart and soul and body and circumstances in the march to publish His mercy to the world.”

~William Booth

“The man...looking at him with a smile that only half concealed his contempt, inquired, ‘Now Mr. Morrison do you really expect that you will make an impression on the idolatry of the Chinese Empire?’ ‘No sir,’ said Morrison, ‘but I expect that God will.’”

~Robert Morrison

Unleashing the Gospel

II Timothy 2:8-9

Big Truth of Today’s Message: A healthy church understands God’s global plan and mobilizes every member to take the gospel from their neighborhoods to the nations for God’s glory.

Why do evangelism and missions?

What if the church became the missionary?

How one dense pastor discovered God’s heart for His glory in missions.
