*My Worth Is Not In
What I Own*

“I do not believe one can settle how much we ought to give. I am afraid the only safe rule is to give more than we can spare. In other words, if our expenditure on comforts, luxuries, amusements, etc., is up to the standard common among those with the same income as our own, we are probably giving away too little. If our charities do not at all pinch or hamper us, I should say they are too small. There ought to be things we should like to do and cannot do because our charitable expenditure excludes them.”

~C. S. Lewis

“He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose.”

~Jim Elliot

“Dear friends, this name, this faith, these are our message. Our only business here below is to cry, ‘Behold the Lamb!’ Are any of you sent of God with any other message? It cannot be. The one message which God has given to His people to proclaim is salvation through the Lamb—salvation by the blood of Jesus... To tell of Jesus is our occupation, we have nothing to say which is not comprised in the revelation made to us by God in Jesus Christ. He who is our comfort is our one theme.”

~Charles Spurgeon

“The most important yardstick by which a church can be measured is not how large it is, how good its fellowship is, or how interesting the pastor is. It is not how good the music is, how well the grounds are kept up, or how respected it is in the community. The most important measure of any church is how it handles the Word of God. Whether or not they teach and live out divine truth is the key issue, because the church’s responsibility before God is to guard and proclaim the truths of Scripture. Consequently, the most severe crime against God is to mishandle His revelation, thus portraying a false, idolatrous image of Him to the world.”

~John MacArthur

Generosity, Guarding & Grace for the Journey

I Timothy 6:17-21

Big Truth of this Series: God has commissioned the people of God, the church, to be grounded in sound doctrine and to live in a godly manner according to His truth.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: True believers are to be generous with God’s gifts, be guarding God’s truth, and be grateful for God’s grace for life and eternity.

Be generous with God’s abundant gifts.

- 17 As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.*
- 18 They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share,*
- 19 thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.*

Guard God’s truth.

- 20 O Timothy, guard the deposit entrusted to you. Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions of what is falsely called “knowledge,”*
- 21 for by professing it some have swerved from the faith.*

Be grateful for God’s grace.

- 21 Grace be with you.*
