*How Rich a Treasure
We Possess*

“He is much happier that is always content, though he has ever so little, than he that is always coveting, though he has ever so much.” ~Matthew Henry

“What is the purpose of life? Very simply, you will never be satisfied until you enter a relationship with your Creator. Your heart is restless in its pursuit of a god – some ‘noble’ gods (good causes, loved ones) and some bad gods (selfishness, money.) But the true God has wired all humanity to find true peace, happiness, hope, and identity in Him alone. It’s His built-in safeguard for us to avoid idolatry and second-rate pleasures.” ~Randy Smith

“The more of heaven there is in our lives, the less of earth we shall covet.” ~Charles Spurgeon

“Let us all be on our guard against the love of money. The world is full of it in our days. The plague is abroad. Thousands who would abhor the idea of worshipping an idol, are not ashamed to make an idol of gold. We are all liable to the infection, from the least to the greatest. We may love money without having it, just as we may have money without loving it. It is an evil that works very deceitfully. It carries us captive before we are aware of our chains. Once let it get the mastery, and it will harden, paralyze, scorch, freeze, blight, and wither our souls. It overthrew an apostle of Christ. Let us take heed that it does not overthrow us. One leak may sink a ship. One unmortified sin may ruin a soul.” ~J. C. Ryle

“If having more would make us happy, we would never need the Tenth Commandment. It is written for unhappy people!” ~Ray Pritchard

The Great Pain & Perditions in Loving Money I Timothy 6:6-10

Big Truth of this Series: God has commissioned the people of God, the church, to be grounded in sound doctrine and to live in a godly manner according to His truth.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Loving and pursuing money instead of godliness with contentment will ultimately lead to great harm and even eternal destruction.

⁶ Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment,

⁷ for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. ⁸ But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content.

⁹ But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.

¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs.
