Missions Giving Opportunity: As winter approaches many homeless in Oklahoma City will need physical protection from the elements. But more than that they need the good news of the Gospel. The Life Adult Ministry will be providing drawstring backpacks filled with needed items to bring physical comfort along with a Bible, gospel tract, and a “Peace Packet” to minister to their spiritual needs. The goal is to put together 200 backpacks to be distributed by City Care Night Shelter. If you would like to be a part of the Promise Pack Mission this November, please designate your gift by writing “Missions Fund” on the memo line of your check.

Kingdom Kids Christmas 2023: Every year, with your help, Harvest Evangelistic Association puts together 20,000 Christmas backpacks, loaded with school supplies, toys, cookies, lollipops, and a beautiful gospel booklet. Over 400 native pastors are trained and equipped to use the backpacks as a tool to reach their entire community with the Gospel. You can find out more about this ministry to which Heritage provides support and help fill backpacks now for $10 each through HEA by visiting harvestevangelistic.org/kingdom-kids/ or stop by the kiosk in the Commons for more information.

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Song of Response

O Great God

“See that your chief study be about your heart, that there God’s image may be planted, and His interest advanced, and the interest of the world and flesh subdued, and the love of every sin cast out, and the love of holiness succeed.” ~Richard Baxter

“Paul presented this ‘older woman teaching younger women’ model as one of the greatest teaching opportunities mature Christian women can have in the church. They carefully share wisdom out of their years of experience, something even mature men have no capacity to do. Furthermore, these mature women can do what men should not do in a personal setting – to communicate with women regarding very intimate matters. It is obvious Timothy faced this challenge in Ephesus when Paul exhorted him – particularly as a young single man – to ‘treat older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.’” ~Gene Getz

“God is less interested in answering our questions than in other things: securing our allegiance, establishing our faith, nurturing a desire for holiness.” ~D.A. Carson

“Scripture speaks of both a holiness we already possess in Christ before God and a holiness in which we are to grow more and more. The first is the result of the work of Christ for us; the second is the result of the work of the Holy Spirit in us. The first is perfect and complete and is ours the moment we trust Christ; the second is progressive and incomplete as long as we are in this life. The objective holiness we have in Christ and the subjective holiness produced by the Holy Spirit are both gifts of God’s grace and are both appropriated by faith.” ~Jerry Bridges

Godward Living in God’s Family – Older Women
Titus 2:1-2

Big Truth of this Series: With the saints through the ages, we share a common faith in gospel doctrine that inspires gospel duty and gospel duty that adorns gospel doctrine.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Spiritually healthy families, both the church family and the nuclear family, require older women to have a Godward life.

“Older women likewise are to be...”

“reverent in behavior...”

“not slaves to much wine...”

“they are to teach what is good, and so train the young women...”
