"Thank you so much for providing the meal for us before Ed's service. Everything was so delicious. Thank you also for all the kind words and texts. Thank you for loving him and also Carlita the way you did. You were all so special to them both." ~The Johnson Family

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

“Older women should teach younger women the skills and disciplines needed to have a successful home and marriage. Experienced wives and mothers will find their greatest avenue of ministry in teaching younger wives what they need to know to be effective wives, mothers, and homemakers.”
~John MacArthur

“To submit to anyone less than Christ is difficult in a marriage. Yet it is Christ who commands women to be submissive to their sinful, fallible husbands. In this sense Christ is the silent partner of the marriage. It is hard for a wife to submit when she disagrees with her husband. But when she knows her submission is an act of obedience to Christ and honors Christ, it is much less difficult.”

~R. C. Sproul

“Do not die, O ye greyheads – ye who have passed your threescore years and ten – do not pass away from this earth with all those pleasant memories of God’s lovingkindness to be buried with you in your coffin; but let your children, and your children’s children, know what the everlasting God did for you.”
~Charles Spurgeon

“I initially examined Christianity in order to write a book making a mockery of it... After extensive research, however, I discovered that Christianity is not a religion of men and women working their way to God through ‘good works.’ Nor is it obedience to a pattern of religious ritual. Rather, it is a relationship with a living God through His Son Jesus Christ. To my amazement, I was confronted with a person, not a religion. Here was a person so different from what I had expected. Other religious leaders put their teachings out in front. Jesus put Himself out in front. Others would ask, ‘How are you responding to my teachings?’ Jesus asked, ‘How are you related to Me?’”

~Josh McDowell and Bart Larson

Godward Living in God’s Family – Younger Women
Titus 2:4-5

Big Truth of this Series: With the saints through the ages, we share a common faith in gospel doctrine that inspires gospel duty and gospel duty that adorns gospel doctrine.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Spiritually healthy families, both the church family and the nuclear family, require younger women to have a gospelsed and Godward life.

“Train the young women to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled, pure...”

“to be working at home...”

“to be kind...”

“To be submissive to their own husbands...”

“That the word of God may not be reviled.”
