Song of Response

By Faith

“Salvation is complete; it involves justification, sanctification, and glorification. By grace, through faith, God justifies believers in an instantaneous act. That is to say, Christ died for His people in order that the penalty for their sins might be paid and His righteousness might be counted to them. They are declared just before God when they believe. Once justified, Christ saves them from the power of their sins through the lifelong process of sanctification. In sanctification, Christians are made more and more like Jesus Christ. But a lifelong process never ends, and the final goal is never reached until death. At death, Christians are glorified; they are then made completely perfect for the first time.” ~Jay Adams

“It’s not that faith itself is saving. It’s that faith is the way you acknowledge Christ as your substitute... Faith leans on Christ and trusts that when Christ died on the cross, He was dying in your place, for you.” ~Michael Lawrence

“Moreover, true repentance never exists except in conjunction with faith, while on the other hand, wherever there is true faith, there is also real repentance. The two are but different aspects of the same turning—a turning away from sin in the direction of God. The two cannot be separated; they are simply complementary parts of the same process.” ~Louis Berkhof

“For the Puritans the husband was the family pastor, responsible for channeling the family into religion, taking them to church, catechizing the children, teaching them the faith, examining the family after the sermon to check retention and understanding, filling the gaps along the way, leading family worship and setting a godly example in all manners of living.” ~Michael Beates

A Heritage of Faith

II Timothy 1:5

Big Truth of this Series: The apostle Paul encourages and warns Timothy and all believers to follow, entrust, and be always ready to proclaim God’s Word with confidence and joy as days of difficulty lie ahead.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: Timothy had a rich heritage of the faith of his family that served as the foundation for his own authentic faith.

“I am reminded of your sincere faith...”

“...a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well.”
